1. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that the victim as well as the present petitioner were involved in an extra marital relationship for a long period as her husband was a migrant labour, who works in the different places. He prays for anticipatory bail on any terms and conditions.
2. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the de-facto complainant strongly opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail and further submits that she had been raped upon threatening to murder her husband.

3. Learned counsel representing the State produces the memo of evidence as well as case diary and relies upon the statement of the victim under Section 183 of the B.N.S.S. and opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.
4. Having heard the learned counsels for the respective parties and upon perusal of the memo of evidence, case diary including the statement of the victim under Section 183 of the B.N.S.S., this court finds there are sufficient materials against the present petitioner of the alleged offences.
