ORDER
(Hybrid Mode)

25.11.2026:

The respondent has submitted the notes of submission, whereas the appellant has not submitted his notes of submission. We require the appellant to do the same within 7 days.

2. It is a case where the appellant, the CoC, is showing least inclination to abide by the orders of the Adjudicating Authority directing payment of remuneration to the erstwhile resolution professional. We require the appellant to explain why the respondent shall not be paid his remuneration if he has discharged his duties.

3. Short accommodation was sought on behalf of the learned counsel for the appellant, and it is granted. List this appeal on 07.12.2026.
