10.07.2026 Learned Counsel for the Appellant is continue with his submission, however, during the course of deliberation, it is noticed that there are certain documents filed in the Memo of Appeal which are blurred and an opportunity in our opinion required to be given to Learned Counsel for the Appellant to either file the typed copy or the legible copy of those documents. The copy has indicated may be filed within three working days from today.

At this juncture, Learned Counsel for the Appellant submits that he also intends to file some documents as additional evidence and be permitted to file an appropriate application in this regard. He is accordingly permitted.

Without adverting to the merits of the documents or the application which have been moved by the Appellant, we permit Learned Counsel for the Appellant to move any such application within three days from today, with an advance copy to Learned Counsel for the Respondent, who in turn, if so wish, may file their responses to that application.

We provide an opportunity to the Respondents that, if they so wish, may also enclose appropriate documentary evidence which they would like to file in rebuttal to the documents which may be filed by the Appellant in its application for taking on record the additional evidence.

We further permit Learned Counsel for the Parties to bring on record any convenience compilation and written notes.

Accordingly, list these appeals on 15.07.2026.
