Enabling Adoption & Deployment of Technology in India

Vision

To establish a multi-channel, pan-India distribution footprint and to pursue a high-engagement strategy across General Trade, Modern Trade, and E-Commerce channels.

Mission

To make IT products available in each of the 800+ districts in India

RP Tech plays a foundational role in India's technology ecosystem, connecting global innovation with nationwide access, adoption and trust while expanding beyond traditional distribution into value-added solutions and services, enabling customers across the technology lifecycle and capturing greater value across the technology chain.

How the Company Enables Technology Adoption at Scale

Bridge Between Global OEMs and India

Trusted national distributor of 89 global technology brands, enabling faster market entry, deeper penetration and long-term brand scaling in India

Multi-Channel Distribution Backbone

Integrated presence across General Trade, Modern Trade and E-Commerce, ensuring technology availability for consumers, enterprises, MSMEs, institutions and government

Driving Adoption, Not Just Availability

Channel training programs, roadshows, solution demonstrations and pre-sales, techno-commercial support enable adoption of complex and high-value IT products

End to End Support

End-to-end managed services across IT support, cloud, cybersecurity, data management and disaster recovery strengthen customer stickiness, drive recurring revenues and create opportunities for deeper engagement and cross-selling.

Nationwide Access

One of India's largest ICT distribution networks with 728+ locations, 57 branches, 72 warehouses and 50 service centres, extending technology reach beyond metros into Tier-2, Tier-3 and emerging markets

Diversified Product and Service Offerings

Expanding across ICT products, managed services and embedded & semiconductor solutions to deepen customer engagement and capture greater share of the technology value chain.

Customer Value Proposition

Vendor Value Proposition

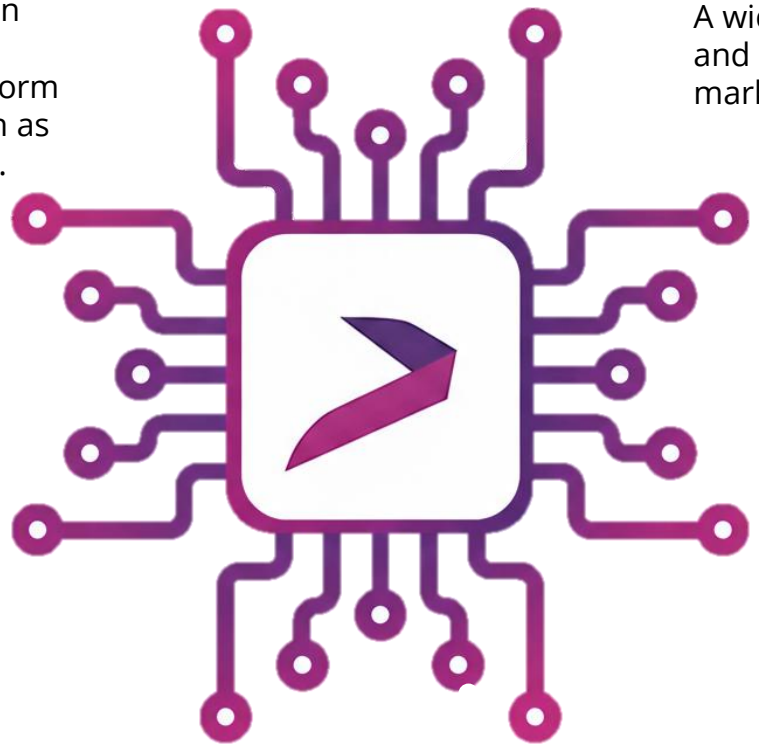

Key Strengths

Experienced Industry Player with Legacy

37+ years of experience in ICT distribution provide deep market knowledge, strong industry relationships and a proven platform to expand into high-growth verticals such as semiconductors and technology services.

Extensive Pan-India Network

A wide and deep presence with 20 regions, 72 warehouses and reach into 728+ locations across India, enabling strong market access and logistical coverage

Expanding Share across the Technology Value Chain

Diversified product lines and technology verticals enable broader customer engagement, higher wallet share and multiple avenues for growth.

Strong Channel Partner Relationships

Serves thousands of channel partners, with a high degree of repeat business and long-standing customer ties, which supports stable revenue streams

Leading Partner for Global Technology Brands

National distribution partner to 89+ global tech brands across IT and lifestyle categories, strengthening credibility and product access

Comprehensive Service Portfolio

Offers a comprehensive suite of managed IT services, including 24/7 IT support, cloud and infrastructure management, data backup and recovery, migration, database administration, cybersecurity, SOC and disaster recovery services.

Wallet Share Expansion

A broad, multi-OEM portfolio enables bundling of endpoints, infrastructure, and peripherals within the same account, increasing share of spend without incremental customer acquisition cost.

Multi-Channel Go-to-Market Strategy

Presence across general trade, modern trade and e-commerce channels increases distribution flexibility and customer reach
