UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

1. Issue notice to the respondents.
2. Mr. Karan Batura, learned counsel appearing for the respondent/caveator accepts notice.

3. We have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned senior counsel for the respondent-caveator at length on the interim order sought for by the petitioner herein. We have also perused the material on record in detail.
4. There shall be interim stay of the impugned order.
5. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that in the interregnum, the impugned order has been given effect to inasmuch as the possession of the scheduled shop has been taken over by the receiver.
6. If that is so, we direct the receiver to handover the possession of the scheduled shop to the petitioner herein and file a report in that regard to this Court within a period of two weeks from today.
7. At this stage, learned senior counsel appearing for respondent No.1/caveator submitted that the interim order may be made absolute and the Special Leave Petition could be disposed of with a direction to the Trial Court to conclude the trial expeditiously.
8. In response, petitioner's counsel submitted that she has no objection for such an order being passed.
9. In the circumstances, we dispose of this Special Leave Petition by making the aforesaid interim order final.
10. The Special Leave Petition stands disposed of. However, since the suit is of the year 1976, we direct the Trial Court to conclude the same as expeditiously as possible and at any rate within a period of one year from today.

11. We also clarify that this order would not come in the way of the suit being disposed of on its own merits.

12. Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
