O R D E R

1. On merits, we are not satisfied that the appellants have a sound case. We had indicated so in course of hearing of this appeal on 21st July, 2026.
2. Mr. Puneet Taneja, learned senior counsel appearing for the appellants has sought for time to obtain instructions as to whether the appellants would be agreeable to pay to the respondent the amounts he would have been entitled to if he were permitted to render service from 6th June, 2012 to 31st January, 2017.
3. Mr. Taneja today submits that some more time is required to obtain approval from the competent authority.
4. Mr. Manish Goswami, learned senior counsel appearing for the respondent has placed before us a calculation of the emoluments of the respondent from June, 2011 to January, 2017.

5. Having regard to the fact that the respondent was appointed on probation for a period of one year vide appointment letter dated 1st December, 2010, he is prima facie not entitled to any amount beyond 31st January, 2012.
6. Insofar as the last drawn pay of the respondent prior to termination is concerned, we require Mr. Goswami to place on record by way of an affidavit the last pay certificate of May, 2011.
