UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

1. Having heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties and having gone through the materials on record, We are of the view that no error, not to speak of any error of law, could be said to have been committed by the High Court in passing the impugned order.
2. However, having regard to the peculiar nature of the dispute and the relations of the parties, it will be in the interest of one and all if they should sit, talk and put an end to the entire dispute, otherwise, this is going to be a never ending litigation.
3. With the aforesaid, the Special Leave Petitions are, disposed of.
4. Pending application(s), if any, stands disposed of.
