Subject: Intimation under Regulation 30 – Exit from the EPC business; Company to focus solely on the manufacture of Cables and Conductors

Dear Sir/ Madam,

Pursuant to Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, we wish to inform you that JD Cables Limited ("the Company") has decided to exit the Engineering, Procurement and Construction (EPC) business and to operate solely as a manufacturer and supplier of Cables and Conductors, which is its core business.

1. What is changing

(a) With effect from Saturday, 14th November 2026, the Company will not bid for, accept or enter into any new EPC contract or project.

(b)From that date, the Company's business will consist only of the manufacture and supply of Cables and Conductors.

2. What is not changing

(a) EPC contracts already in hand, if any, will be executed and completed in accordance with their existing contractual terms. The Company will continue to honour all its obligations to the customers under those contracts.

(b)The Company's manufacturing operations and its supplies to customers in the Cable and Conductor segment continue without any change.

3. Why the Company has taken this decision

(a) To direct the Company's management attention, capital and resources entirely towards its core manufacturing business, where it has its established strengths.'

(b)To reduce the project-execution risk and the working capital requirements typically associated with EPC contracts.

(c) To improve operational efficiency and the utilisation of the Company's manufacturing capacity, while maintaining its commitment to quality and reliability for its customers.

4. Contribution of the EPC business

During the financial year 2025-26, the EPC business contributed Rs. 3050.49 lakhs, i.e. 8.36 % of the Company's total revenue from operations, and approx. 20% of its net worth.

5. Approval

The above decision will be placed for approval before the [Board of Directors / Business Co-ordination Committee] at its meeting scheduled on Saturday, 14th November 2026. The Company will intimate the outcome of the meeting to the Exchange in due course.

We request you to take the above information on your records.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

For JD Cables Limited
