ORDER

1. By the order dated 24th February 2026, it was recorded, based on the statement of Mr. Alok Sangwan, learned Senior Additional Advocate General for the State of Punjab, Haryana, that the requisite payments had already been made to the petitioner on 17th December 2025. At that stage, time was granted to the petitioner's counsel to obtain necessary instructions on the matter.

2. Subsequently, Mr. Sangwan has filed an affidavit affirming that the entire admissible payment, was duly made to the petitioner on 17th December 2025. Some of the amount including the interest component of ₹2,00,000/- (Rupees Two Lakhs Only) was paid subsequently. Learned counsel for the petitioner also admits the receipt of the said payments.

3. In view of the previous record of proceedings, the affidavit and acknowledgment by the petitioner's counsel confirming that the entire payment stand discharged, not only on 17th December 2025, followed by the remaining balance later also, we do not find any reason to continue any further with the present contempt petition.

4. Accordingly, the notice is discharged and the petition is ordered to be consigned to the record room.

5. The contempt petition stands disposed of.

6. Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
