123 of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 105 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioners were found to be in possession of 24 Nos. of Tapentadol tablets and the same was seized by the respondent police. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocents and have been falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioners.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that each petitioners having two previous cases pending against them. However, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioners.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, it is seen that though the petitioners have two previous cases each, taking into consideration the period of incarceration already undergone by them and the fact that the contraband seized is of intermediate quantity, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners is ordered to be released on bail on their executing a separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Arcot, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the Application for Surety ship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of the identity proofs to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of 30 days and thereafter as and when required for interrogation;

[c] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioners shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforementioned conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to pass appropriate orders against the petitioners in accordance with
