PRESS RELEASE

Exploring Business Opportunities in Artificial Intelligence Technology

Blue Cloud Softech Solutions Limited ("BCSSL" or the "Company"), a company listed on BSE Limited, wishes to inform that it is evaluating preliminary, non-binding business opportunities in the field of artificial intelligence technology with SpaceX International Ltd.

The parties have, at this stage, established only a framework for the exchange of information to facilitate discussions and an evaluation of potential areas of collaboration. This reflects the Company's continued focus on exploring strategic opportunities in the digital infrastructure and technology ecosystem.

The Company believes that the growing demand for artificial intelligence applications and digital technology presents significant opportunities, and the proposed discussions are intended to assess the feasibility and potential scope of any future collaboration.

The Company clarifies that the preliminary discussions are solely for the purpose of evaluating potential business opportunities and do not create any binding obligation on either party to enter into any transaction, joint venture, investment, partnership or definitive agreement. Any future transaction, if pursued, shall be subject to detailed due diligence, mutual agreement, execution of definitive documentation, corporate approvals and applicable regulatory requirements.

BCSSL remains committed to identifying opportunities that can create long-term value for its stakeholders and will make appropriate disclosures to the stock exchanges in accordance with applicable laws and regulations as and when any material developments occur.

About Blue Cloud Softech Solutions Limited
