IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
CONSTITUTIONAL WRIT JURISDICTION
APPELLATE SIDE.

WPA 15899 of 2024

Milan Debnath
Vs.
The State of West Bengal and others.

Mr. Parvej Anam.
... for the petitioner.

Mr. Swarvanu Saha,
Ms. Madhurima Basu.

Ms. Deblina Chattaraj,

... for the WBTC.

1. The affidavit of service filed today is taken on record.
2. The petitioner was an employee of the Calcutta Tramways Company (1978) Limited, presently known as West Bengal Transport Corporation Limited.
3. The petitioner had retired from service sometime on April 30, 2014 and had received his retiral benefits on June 30, 2015. The petitioner accepted such amounts without any protest and/or demur and failed to approach any Forum claiming interest. The petitioner had approached this Court only in 2024 after the lapse of nine years and ten months to claim interest for the period afore-stated. This delayed payment for interest after the lapse of nine years cannot be entertained at this stage.

4. The petitioner cannot be permitted to approach this Court at such belated stage, seeking interest on account of payment, which has been received by him without any protest and/or demur. The base minimum period to approach the Court should align with the timelines for limitation of a monetary claim. This is clearly beyond the period of three years and cannot be entertained.
5. The writ petition fails and is, accordingly, dismissed.
6. There shall, however, be no order as to costs.
7. Urgent Photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties on priority basis.
