LAPL Automotive Limited Expands Customer Base and Secures New Automotive Lighting Development Projects

Aurangabad, 17th October 2026 – LAPL Automotive Limited (BSE SME: 544863), an integrated automotive components manufacturer engaged in the design and manufacture of automotive lighting systems, mirrors, motors and plastic moulded components, today announced key business developments covering new customer additions, commencement of supplies and lighting development projects.

Addition of a Leading Global Automotive Component Manufacturer

LAPL Automotive has added a prominent global automotive component manufacturer with a presence across multiple countries to its customer base. The development broadens the Company's customer portfolio within the automotive components industry.

Commencement of Supplies to SAMARTH E-MOBILITY for the AMORE Brand

LAPL Automotive has commenced supplies of mirrors, rear reflectors, USB chargers and universal blinkers for the newly introduced AMORE brand vehicle of SAMARTH E-MOBILITY.

The engagement adds a new customer to the Company's portfolio and extends its supplies across lighting products and related vehicle accessories.

Headlamp Adaptation for an Upcoming EULER Vehicle

The Company is undertaking the adaptation of its headlamp for an upcoming vehicle model of EULER. The project supports the customer's future vehicle launch and expands the application of LAPL Automotive's lighting products.

Together, these developments broaden the Company's customer and product portfolio, combining new customer relationships with development opportunities and supplies across multiple component categories. They support LAPL Automotive's focus on strengthening its role as a component development and manufacturing partner to automotive customers.

Management Commentary

Mr. Neeraj Satyaprakash Goyal, Chairman and Managing Director, LAPL Automotive Limited, commented: "These developments reflect our continued efforts to build customer relationships and expand our participation in new vehicle programmes. The addition of a global automotive component manufacturer broadens our customer base, while the EULER headlamp adaptation provides an opportunity to contribute our lighting development capabilities to an upcoming vehicle model."

"The commencement of supplies for SAMARTH E-MOBILITY's AMORE vehicle also extends our engagement across multiple product categories. We remain focused on meeting customer requirements through product quality, timely development and reliable supplies."
