Mr. Seckin Arikan, Chairman, Route Mobile Limited and CEO, Proximus Global, said: "Route Mobile has continued to demonstrate resilience in a challenging market environment. The underlying demand for our solutions remains strong, resulting in healthy traffic growth and continued customer engagement. Route Mobile remains focused on strengthening its portfolio, driving operational discipline, and leveraging its global scale to create long-term value as part of Proximus Global."

"Q1 FY27 saw continued momentum across the business, with revenue growing year-on-year and quarter-on-quarter. Profitability was affected by a combination of market-related factors, but these are already being actively addressed through targeted actions to support margin recovery. The focus remains clear: improving operational efficiency, rebuilding traffic with existing customers, expanding new customer relationships, and accelerating the adoption of higher-value solutions across the portfolio. With these initiatives already underway, Route Mobile remains confident in its ability to strengthen margins and deliver sustainable long-term growth," added Mr. Tushar Agnihotri, CEO, Route Mobile.
