This is an application to extend the time granted for curing the defects.

The facts giving rise to present IA (re-filing) are that the Appellant e-filed the Memo of Appeal on 24.04.2026. The Office after scrutiny of the Memo of Appeal on 18.05.2026, intimated the defects to the Appellant on the same day. The Appellant re-filed the Appeal on 10.07.2026. It is stated in the IA the Appeal was filed on 25.04.2026 and subsequently, the Appeal was marked as defective on 02.05.2026 by the Registry. After curing the said defects, Appeal was refiled. However, defects were again marked on 13.05.2026. After going through the list of defects, it was seen that there is duplication of defects which had already been cured during refiling on 08.05.2026. Some of the annexures still required clearer copies and due to inadvertence, signatures of the Learned Counsel at certain places were missing which had to be cured and refiled again along with the present Application for condonation of refiling delay. The remaining defects were primarily procedural and technical in nature. The Applicant made bona fide efforts cure the defects within stipulated time but delay occurred which is solely on account of aforesaid bona fide circumstances and procedural and technical deficiencies. Delay is neither intentional, deliberate nor attributable to any negligence or lack of diligence on part of the Applicant.

None appeared for Applicant. Perused the averments made in the IA as well as Office report.

The Appellant was required to re-file the Memo of Appeal within seven days from the date of intimation of the defects. However, the Appellant re-filed the Memo of Appeal with a delay of 62 days, hence, the case may be placed before the Hon'ble Bench with defect for appropriate orders.

List the case before the Hon'ble Bench under the heading 'for admission with defect (fresh case)'.
