ORDER
(Hybrid Mode)

27.08.2026: This appeal is preferred challenging the order passed in the contempt application taken out by the liquidator alleging that the appellant herein has not shared certain information/document which the liquidator had required as per the earlier order of the learned Adjudicating Authority. The appellant contends the document which the liquidator claims was not maintained by the company and whatever information he could produce in relation to the same has already been shared. He submits that he cannot bring the fact which does not exist.

Liquidator seeks a short accommodation, owing to non-availability of his counsel.

There shall be an interim order staying the sentence of imprisonment imposed on the appellant.

List the matter on 11.09.2026.
