Suvendu to be Bengal's first BJP CM, to take oath today

ATRI MITRA & TANUSREE BOSE
Kolkata, May 8

WEST BENGAL CHIEF Minister-elect Suvendu Adhikari met Governor RN Ravi on Friday evening and staked claim to form the first BJP government in the state. This came hours after the BJP Legislature Party unanimously chose Adhikari as its leader. Adhikari will take oath at the Brigade Parade Ground along with two Deputy CMs on Saturday morning, sources in the Lok Bhawan said.

Earlier in the day, senior BJP leader and former state unit president Dilip Ghosh proposed Adhikari's name during the Legislature Party meeting, saying he had become the face of the BJP's expansion in Bengal and was the best placed to lead the new government. After the proposal received the unanimous support of all the MLAs, Union Home Minister Amit Shah, the central observer, announced him as the leader of the Legislature Party.

"After a 100-year ideological journey, the BJP is in power everywhere from Gangotri to Gangasagar," Shah told party legislators in an address after the meeting, tracing the party's journey in the state that was often dubbed as one of its "final frontiers". "When I had just become the BJP president in 2014, our current state president Samik Bhattacharya opened our account by winning a by-election (in Basirhat Dakshin). In 2016, we had 3 seats. In 2021, we had 77, and now in 2026, we have 207 seats and we are going to get a CM."

"The BJP promises the people of Bengal and the country that we will identify and remove every infiltrator from India. And let me say from this stage — people who call this polarisation are mistaken. This is not about polarisation. This is about national security," Shah said.

Addressing BJP legislators and leaders, Adhikari outlined the priorities of the incoming government. "Bhoi (fear) is out and, as Prime Minister Narendra Modi ji has said, bharosa (trust) is in," he said amid loud cheers from party MLAs and supporters, adding that the BJP government would function on the principle of collective leadership. "The people of Bengal have given us a historic mandate. We will fulfil all the promises made in the BJP's poll manifesto in Bengal," he said.

Vijay meets Guv after backing from CPI, CPI(M), VCK, IUML

ARUN JANARDHANAN
Chennai, May 8

ACTOR-POLITICIAN VIJAY MOVED sharply closer to forming the next government in Tamil Nadu on Friday after DMK allies the CPI, CPM, VCK and IUML extended support to his Tamilaga Vettri Kazhagam (TVK), pushing the fledgling party-led bloc to the edge of the majority mark in a fractured Assembly.

By evening, Vijay had already met Governor Rajendra Vishwanath Arlekar and staked claim to form the government after days of intense negotiations, political reversals and rapidly shifting loyalties that have upended the state's traditional Dravidian order.

The TVK won 108 seats in the Assembly election, emerging as the single largest force in a contest that shattered the decades-long dominance of the DMK and AIADMK, which won 59 and 47 seats respectively.

With support from the Congress's five MLAs and two MLAs each from the CPI, CPI(M), VCK and IUML, the TVK-led combine's tally had reached 120 seats by Friday evening. Vijay is expected to be sworn in as Chief Minister on Saturday around 11 am, according to sources involved in the government formation process.

TVK chief Vijay (centre) with CPI(M) Tamil Nadu state secretary P Shanmugam (right) and senior party leaders during the formers' visit to the CPI(M) headquarters, in Chennai on Friday

The arrangement being discussed reflects the unusual political moment Tamil Nadu has entered. According to leaders familiar with the negotiations, the VCK and IUML are likely to become part of the government, while the CPI and CPI(M) have chosen to extend support from outside.

At one stage, discussions inside sections of the anti-DMK bloc even included the possibility of VCK leader Thol Thirumavalavan becoming Deputy Chief Minister if he resigned from his Lok Sabha seat and contested a bypoll from Tiruchy East.

The IUML's support, meanwhile, appeared linked to a wider political understanding involving the Congress. Leaders familiar with the negotiations said the Congress had reportedly offered the IUML a Cabinet berth in Kerala in return for its support to TVK in Tamil Nadu. IUML leaders, who met DMK chief M K Stalin at his residence before heading to the TVK office, said they had informed the outgoing CM about the situation and he had asked them to facilitate the government formation.

Cong observers for Kerala submit report to KCharge

THE TWO CONGRESS observers, appointed to seek the opinion of newly-elected MLAs in Kerala, submitted their report to Congress president Mallikarjun KCharge on Friday and urged the party high command to take a final decision on the chief ministerial candidate.

The focus has now shifted to the national capital as the Congress leadership has summoned the state leadership for discussions on the chief ministerial candidate and government formation. Leader of Opposition in the outgoing Kerala assembly V D Satheesan, senior party leader

Ramesh Chennithala and Kerala Congress chief Sunny Joseph are all arriving in Delhi tonight to have talks with the party leadership on government formation. PTI

Cong offered 2 ministerial posts in TVK-led govt, claims TN unit chief

TNCC PRESIDENT K Selvapuruthagai on Friday said that the Congress will be part of the new government in Tamil Nadu led by actor-politician Vijay-led TVK and claimed that it was offered two ministerial posts and one Rajya Sabha seat.

Speaking to reporters after a statewide protest against the Governor's delay in inviting the single largest party (TVK) to form the government, Selvapuruthagai said the party top brass is currently finalising the details of their participation.

"They (TVK) have said two ministers and one Rajya Sabha member." However, the final decision on the number of portfolios and specific demands rests with the Congress national leadership, he said.

Dismissing concerns regarding a "hung assembly", the TNCC chief noted that the alliance has "almost reached" the required majority mark of 118 seats. He assured that the government would be stable once the majority is proven on the floor of the House.

Selvapuruthagai said that this alliance is not merely for the current government formation but is intended to continue through local body elections and the Parliamentary elections.
