Commenting on the results, Mr. Anirudhsinh Jadeja – Managing Director, GTPL Hathway Limited, said,

“In the first half of FY27, we have remained focused on expanding our footprint, improving the scalability of our operations and building a stronger platform across Digital TV and Broadband.

The completion of the ACT Group transaction is an important step in this direction. With the addition of approximately 6 lakh subscribers across Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Odisha and Karnataka, we have further strengthened our presence in these markets and expanded our operating scale.

As we move forward, our focus will be on effective integration of the acquired operations, strengthening our presence across markets, expanding our Broadband business and improving the overall economics of our operations. We believe that our increasing scale, wider footprint and integrated Digital TV and Broadband capabilities provide us with a strong platform to capture the opportunities ahead and create sustainable long-term value for our stakeholders”
