Dear Sirs/Madam,

Sub.: Reply to clarification /Confirmation on news item appearing in "Media/Publication"/ rumour verification
Ref.: NSE/CM/Surveillance/17339 dated August 07, 2026 and BSE L/SURV/ONL/RV/SJ/ (2026-2027)/ 67.

This is in response to your e-mails on the captioned subject seeking clarification on the recent news item which appeared in the "Website-www.moneycontrol.com" dated August 07, 2026 captioned "Tata Tech shares rise 7% as report says Honda outsourced new vehicle programme to company to cut costs".

In this regard, we would like to clarify that the Company in its earnings calls announces/ informs the investors, deal wins if any, which the Company secures in the normal course of business. As per this normal business practice, the Company had previously disclosed the award of a vehicle development program from a Japanese OEM as part of its business updates in the Company's Q4 FY26 earnings release issued in May 2026 and subsequently reiterated the same in its Q1 FY27 earnings release issued in July 2026.

Further, securing engineering and product development programs from global OEMs forms part of the ordinary course of the Company's business, and the Company regularly announces significant client engagements and deal wins as part of its periodic disclosures and earnings communications. With this background and fact that information about engagement with Japanese OEM has already been discussed, we would like to deny this news as undisclosed information. Accordingly, the matter referred to in the news report does not trigger any separate disclosure requirement under Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 since it is in normal course of business.

We would also like to state that the Company is bound by confidentiality obligations and contractual commitments with its customers. In view of such obligations, the Company does not disclose the identity of customers unless specifically permitted under the relevant contractual arrangements. Consequently, the Company is not in a position to confirm or comment on the identity of the customer referred to in the media report.
