Order on Board

02.11.2026

1. The petitioner has filed the present writ petition for issuance of direction to the respondent authorities to release his retiral dues.

2. Learned counsel for the respondents would submit that the grievance raised by the petitioner has already been redressed, as most of the dues have already been paid to the petitioner.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the grievance with regard to leave encashment has already been redressed; however, the amount of gratuity paid to the petitioner is less than the amount due and payable to him.

4. Considering the fact that most of the grievances of the petitioner has already been redressed, therefore, nothing is required to be adjudicated by this Court in this petition at this stage.

5. Accordingly, the present writ petition is disposed of. However, the petitioner is at liberty to take recourse available to him under the law with regard to less amount of gratuity paid to him.
