Iris Clothings Strengthens Manufacturing Capabilities with In-House Embroidery Unit

Strengthening Product Innovation and Category Expansion

Howrah, India, June 18, 2026 – Iris Clothings Limited (NSE: IRISDOREME), a readymade garment company engaged in designing, manufacturing, branding, and selling garments for kids wear, has commenced operations at its new in-house embroidery manufacturing unit, equipped with advanced embroidery machines imported from Japan. The facility marks a strategic milestone in the Company's manufacturing journey, strengthening vertical integration and enhancing its ability to deliver higher-value products across key kidswear categories.

The addition of embroidery unit enhances the manufacturing depth and design capabilities. While the portfolio has traditionally been centered around printed apparel, the new facility enables the introduction of premium embroidered collections, broadening its product portfolio and supporting category expansion. The initiative is expected to deepen the Company's presence in higher-value segments of the organized kidswear market.

This development is significant for the infant wear segment, where embroidery remains a preferred design element and commands higher consumer appeal. By integrating this capability in-house, Iris Clothings gains greater control over design execution, product quality, innovation, and turnaround times, while reducing dependence on external vendors and improving operational efficiency.

“The commissioning of our in-house embroidery unit is a strategic investment that strengthens our manufacturing capabilities and enhances our ability to deliver differentiated, value-added products. This facility expands our design capabilities, supports category diversification, and positions us to capitalize on opportunities in premium and infant wear segments. As we continue to invest in product innovation and operational excellence, we remain focused on driving scalable growth and creating long-term value for all stakeholders” said Mr. Santosh Ladha, Managing Director of Iris Clothings Limited.
