August, 2026 of the learned National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) marked “X” for identification, submits that the Respondent-company has already been dissolved and therefore, these proceedings would not survive any further before this Court.

2. Mr. Ashok Kotangle, learned counsel appearing for the Appellant submits that he has no instructions to dispute the above submissions of the Respondent’s counsel.

3. After going through the judgment of the learned NCLT tendered by the learned counsel for the Respondent, we find no cogent reason to reject the submission of the Respondent’s counsel.

4. Consequently, these Income Tax Appeals stand disposed of, as infructuous.

5. Interim Applications, if any, would also stand disposed of.
