MRPL Press Release : MRPL CHT Unit Fire Incident

Mangaluru, 30th September 2026

An incident involving rupture of the Cold Separator operating at high pressure in the Coker Hydrotreater Unit occurred at MRPL, resulting in a fire around noon today.

The battery limits of the affected unit have been isolated, and MRPL's emergency response and firefighting teams are actively engaged in controlling and dousing the fire. Fire has been brought under control.

The firefighting operation may continue for some time as part of the safe handling of the incident.

No major injuries have been reported. One minor injury has been reported and shifted to hospital and is out of danger and necessary medical attention is being provided.

The situation is being closely monitored, with safety of personnel and the facility being accorded the highest priority.

Further verified information will be shared as soon as it becomes available.

There is absolutely no reason to panic for individuals within and outside MRPL premises.
