CORAM:
THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ADITYA KUMAR
MOHAPATRA
ORDER
08.07.2026

Order No.      I.A. No.985 of 2026

01.      1.      This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual /Physical Mode).
2.      Heard the learned counsel for the Appellant as well as learned Additional Standing Counsel for the State-Respondents.
3.      This I.A. has been filed by the Appellant-Petitioner seeking condonation of delay.
4.      On perusal of the Stamp Report, it appears that there is delay of 2643 days in preferring the appeal before this Court.
5.      Considering the grounds taken in the I.A. and further keeping in view the fact that in many similar cases, this Court has entertained the condonation delay application and the delay has been condoned, the delay of 2643 days in filing the appeal is hereby condoned, subject to payment of cost of Rs.3,000(rupees three thousand) to the Juvenile Justice Fund managed by the Member Secretary, Odisha State Legal Services Authority.

6. Accordingly, the I.A. stands allowed.

FAO No.755 of 2019

7. Heard the learned counsel for the Appellant as well as learned Additional Standing Counsel for the State-Respondents. Perused the appeal as well as the impugned order of the learned State Education Tribunal.

8. The Applicants before the State Education Tribunal have approached this Court by filing the present appeal thereby challenging the order dated 28.01.2019 passed in G.I.A. Case No.69 of 2013.

9. Learned counsel for the appellants, at the outset, contended that the subject matter of the dispute in the present appeal is squarely covered by the ratio laid down by a coordinate Bench of this Court in State of Odisha v. Ratnakar Mahapatra decided in F.A.O. No.509 of 2014 vide judgment dated 19.03.2025. He further contended that such judgment of the coordinate Bench of this Court has been upheld by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in SLP(C) No.6943 of 2026 vide judgment dated 25.03.2026.

10. Learned counsel for the Respondents, on the other hand, vehemently objected to the prayer made by the Appellant in the present appeal. He further contended that the Appellant was not eligible to get such grant-in-aid and that no such recommendation was made in their favour by the Competent Authority. He further submitted that in the event, this Court directs the Respondents to re-examine the case of the Appellant with regard to their eligibility and recommendation, as has been directed by the Coordinate Bench in F.A.O. No.509 of 2014 and a batch as well as the Hon'ble Supreme Court in its final judgment and after such verification to pass necessary consequential order therein, he will have no objection to the same.

11. Considering the submission made by the learned counsels appearing for both the sides, this Court allows the appeal in terms of the judgment dated 19.03.2025 passed by the coordinate Bench of this Court in F.A.O. No.509 of 2014 and batch subject to the condition that the competent authority before applying the aforesaid judgment shall verify the factual background of the present case as well as eligibility and entitlement of the Appellants as directed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India while deciding SLP(C) No.6943 of 2026 vide order dated 25.03.2026 and in the event, the competent authority comes to a conclusion that the factual background of the present case is identical to one involved in the F.A.O. No.509 of 2014 and batch and Appellant satisfy the eligibility and entitlement as directed by the coordinate Bench eventually confirmed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, then similar benefits be extended in favour of the present appellant as has been done in F.A.O. No.509 of 2014.

12. With the aforesaid observation, the F.A.O. stands disposed of.
