1. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Alok Aradhe pronounced the judgment of the Bench comprising Hon'ble Mr. Justice Pamidighantam Sri Narasimha and His Lordship.

2. Leave granted.

3. The appeal stands disposed of in terms of the signed reportable judgment. Paragraph nos. 44-47 of the Judgment read as under:-

"CONCLUSION AND DIRECTIONS

44. We have referred to the asymmetry that exists in our Country in the methods and manners by which deposits are directed to be made before Courts and Tribunals in appeals which are considered. The asymmetry is reflected in many aspects, and we have referred paragraphs 30 to 39 of our judgment. We have also indicated the consequences flowing from such asymmetry and the compelling need to evolve a normative principle that would apply as a standard. We are of the opinion that it is necessary to evolve and formulate a suitable legislation on the subject.

45. We request the Law Commission of India to examine the issues which we have highlighted and, in the process, also consider the laws which other countries have enacted. It may be necessary for the Law Commission to consult the Reserve Bank of India, Ministry of Finance and also the Nodal Ministry of Law and Justice.

46. The Registry is directed to send a copy of our judgment to the Chairman, Law Commission of India, Governor, Reserve Bank of India, and the Secretaries to the Ministries of Finance and Law and Justice.

47. However, in the facts and circumstances of the case, we do not find any ground to interfere with the impugned order. The same is hereby affirmed. With the aforesaid observations/directions, the appeal is disposed of."

4. Pending application(s), if any, stand disposed of.
