Sub: Disclosure under Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 – Order passed by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court.

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Company has evaluated the order referred to below and, based on the information presently available, is of the view that the order does not constitute a material event under Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, read with Para B of Part B of Schedule III and the SEBI master circular bearing reference no. HO/49/14/14(7)2025-CFD-POD2/I/3762/2026 updated as of January 30, 2026 ("Master Circular"), and the Company's Policy for Determination of Materiality. However, as a measure of transparency, the Company wishes to voluntarily disclose the following:

Particulars	Details
Case details	Commercial Arbitration Petition (L) No. 35424 of 2026, filed by NRB Bearings Limited under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996
Court/ tribunal/ agency where litigation is filed	Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Bombay
Name of the opposing party	NRB Bearings Limited
Date of receipt of direction or order, including any ad-interim or interim orders, or any other communication from the authority	04 November 2026
Brief details of litigation/ Nature and details of the actions taken, initiated or orders passed	The Hon'ble Court has passed an interim order prior to the commencement of arbitration proceedings. It restrains the Company from using the marks "NRB Industrial", "NRB Industrial Bearings" and "NRB INDL" on bearings meant for mobile vehicles, including automotive vehicles and farm equipment. The Hon'ble Court has expressly held that the Company is free to carry on the mobile vehicle (automotive and Farm Equipment) bearings business under any other mark besides "NRB Industrial", "NRB Industrial Bearings" and "NRB INDL" and/or any mark in conjunction with the mark "NRB". The Company also remains free to use "NRB Industrial" and "NRB Industrial Bearings" on bearings for industrial applications. The order also contains directions on product marking, the use of certain addresses, the change of name of a group company, and the preservation and disclosure of existing automotive and Farm Equipment stock bearing the marks "NRB Industrial", "NRB Industrial Bearings" and "NRB INDL". The Hon'ble Court rejected NRB Bearings Limited's prayers for the appointment of a Court Receiver and for the cancellation or surrender of the Company's Class 12 trademark registration. The order records that the parties are to observe the findings in the order until the directions passed in the order are changed either by the Arbitral Tribunal or by the Hon'ble Bombay Court and that the order does not prevent the Arbitral Tribunal from finally deciding the disputes. Given that the order was passed in an application filed under section 9 of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996, the findings in the order are on a prima facie basis.

Impact on business operations	Since the order, the Company has put on hold the dispatch of automotive and Farm Equipment bearings carrying the restrained marks and has preserved its existing automotive and Farm Equipment bearings carrying these marks, which it has disclosed to the Hon'ble Court by way of an affidavit filed on 18 November 2026, as directed.
Expected financial implications	The Company has assessed the impact of the order on its Automotive and Farm Equipment bearings business, including its existing stock carrying the restrained marks, and determined that the same is below the threshold of materiality under Regulation 30 of the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015 and the Company's Policy for Determination of Materiality. The Company will make further disclosures, as and when required, in case of any material developments.
Quantum of claims, if any	No monetary claim has been made against the Company in these proceedings
Timing of disclosure	Not applicable, as this disclosure is being made voluntarily.

The Company is evaluating its legal remedies, including an appeal, in consultation with its legal advisors. We will provide requisite updates at appropriate time on any further development on the matter.

We request you to kindly take the above on record.
Yours sincerely,
For NRB Industrial Bearings Limited
