

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF INDIA
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CIVIL APPEAL NO.12996/2025

VIMLA DEVI

Appellant(s)

VERSUS

KARNATAKA BANK LIMITED

Respondent(s)

WITH

O R D E R

We had passed an order on 30.06.2026, after hearing both the sides, clearly indicating our disinclination to allow both the appeals and the interim applications filed. It is only for the purpose of facilitating the learned counsel for the appellant(s) to get certain instructions, that time was granted.

We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the appellants and the learned counsel appearing for the respondent.

Upon hearing them, we are in respectful agreement with the impugned order passed by the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal and the order passed by the National Company Law Tribunal, that the present proceedings are nothing but an abuse of the process of law. These proceedings only show the anxiety of the appellants to hold onto the property by taking recourse to law.

Considering the above, we do not find any reason to interfere with the impugned orders.

The appeals stand dismissed, accordingly.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
