		order and the re-assessments were closed with NIL observations.
5	Expected financial implications on the listed company, if any	Penalty of approximately Rs. 32.29 Crores has been upheld. No tax demand has been raised and there is no material impact on operations at this stage. (The matter has been disclosed as a contingent liability under Note 46(f) in the standalone financial statements for FY25)
6	Details of any litigation, appeal or proceedings initiated	The Company is in the process of filing a writ petition before the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka, Bengaluru challenging the said order-in-Appeal and will seek appropriate interim relief, including stay against recovery proceedings.
7	Reason for delay	The Demand Notices when received were contested and there was no financial impact at that point in time. It was initially decided by the Management to have it called out under contingent liability in the standalone financial statements since there was no financial implication. However, basis the recent discussions internally and understanding of the requirement the revised recommendation is to intimate Stock Exchanges, all Demand and Show Cause Notices basis the materiality threshold irrespective of the same being disclosed under contingent liability/having no financial impact. The Company will ensure to disclose within the prescribed timelines all Demands and Show Cause Notices basis the materiality threshold.

The Company remains committed to ensuring full compliance with applicable laws and regulatory requirements and shall keep the stock exchanges/ regulatory authorities duly informed of any material developments in this matter.
