Megamont Limited Secures ₹2.13 Crore Pigeon Peas Import Contract from Africa, Targets India's FMCG Sector

Mumbai, October 15, 2026: Megamont Limited (BSE: 523888), a diversified global commodity trading company, has secured an import contract valued at approximately ₹2.13 crore for Pigeon Peas (Tur/Arhar), to be sourced from Mozambique or Malawi in Africa.

The contract marks another step in the Company's strategy to diversify its commodity portfolio and expand its presence in India's agricultural supply chain, with the objective of supplying essential agricultural commodities to domestic FMCG companies, food processors and institutional buyers.

Supporting India's Domestic Agricultural Supply Chain

Pigeon Peas are among India's widely consumed pulses and form an important part of the country's staple food basket. International sourcing plays a complementary role in supporting domestic availability and meeting the requirements of India's food-processing and consumption markets.

Through this transaction, Megamont aims to leverage its global sourcing capabilities to establish reliable procurement channels for essential agricultural commodities, while strengthening its participation in India's domestic food supply chain.

The Company intends to market the imported Pigeon Peas to FMCG manufacturers, food-processing companies and other institutional customers, supporting its strategy of developing long-term relationships across consumption-driven industries.

Favourable Policy Environment Aligns with Megamont's Long-Term Vision

The Government of India has extended the free import policy for Tur/Pigeon Peas until March 31, 2027, supporting continued international sourcing of the commodity to supplement domestic supplies.

This policy environment aligns with Megamont's broader vision of establishing a Global Multi-Product Trading House, connecting key commodity-producing regions with major consumption markets across geographies.

By expanding its international sourcing network and diversifying into essential commodities, Megamont aims to build a scalable trading platform serving multiple industries and markets.

The Company's strategy also focuses on identifying commercial arbitrage opportunities arising from differences in international commodity prices, sourcing costs and domestic market demand, while maintaining disciplined trade execution and risk management.

Strengthening Global Sourcing and Market Reach

- The contract provides for sourcing Pigeon Peas from Mozambique or Malawi, expanding Megamont's participation in African agricultural trade corridors.
- Shipments are scheduled between November and December 2026, with delivery at Nhava Sheva Port, India.
- The transaction complements Megamont's existing presence across metals, energy, industrial commodities and agricultural products, further advancing its strategy of building a diversified global trading business.

Management Comment

Mr. Tejas Patil, (Director, Megamont Limited) "At Megamont, our long-term vision is to build a globally connected, multi-product trading house that bridges international sourcing opportunities with demand across key consumption markets. Our entry into Pigeon Peas imports from Africa aligns with this vision and provides an opportunity to strengthen our presence in India's FMCG and food-processing supply chains. By connecting global commodity-producing regions with India's growing domestic demand, we aim to establish reliable sourcing channels and develop long-term relationships with FMCG companies, food processors and institutional buyers.

Going forward, we intend to expand our product portfolio and geographical reach across key commodities and markets. We believe that leveraging international sourcing networks, understanding regional market dynamics and identifying commercial arbitrage opportunities can help us build a diversified and scalable trading business. Our focus remains on efficient trade execution, disciplined working capital management and sustainable growth, with the objective of creating long-term value for the Company and its shareholders."
