Commenting on the results Mr. Rajendra Sethia , Chairman and Managing Director, Western Carriers (India) Limited said: "During the quarter, we demonstrated the resilience of our integrated logistics platform, delivering healthy growth despite an operating environment shaped by geopolitical uncertainties and evolving trade dynamics. Our diversified customer base, multimodal capabilities, and execution focus enabled us to maintain service reliability and support customer supply chains seamlessly across domestic and EXIM markets.

As India continues to strengthen its logistics infrastructure and multimodal connectivity, we remain well positioned to participate in the sector's long-term growth opportunities. Our focus on operational efficiency, digital innovation, and customer-centric solutions continues to enhance our competitive positioning and support sustainable value creation.

Looking ahead, we remain focused on disciplined growth, strengthening profitability, and expanding our capabilities in line with customer requirements. With a resilient business model and a strong market presence, we are confident in our ability to deliver consistent performance in the periods ahead."

About the Company:
