Delhivery Elevates Six Leaders to C-Suite, Strengthening Executive Leadership for the Next Phase of Growth

Gurugram, India – May 16, 2026 – Delhivery (NSE: DELHIVERY, BSE: 543529), India's largest logistics services provider, today announced the elevation of six senior leaders to Executive leadership positions. The appointments underscore the company's continued growth trajectory, organisational maturity, and its commitment to building a deep and capable leadership bench from within.

The following appointments are effective immediately for Delhivery:

Arun Bagavathi has been appointed Chief Operating Officer - Network Operations. Arun has led Delhivery's network operations, fleet management, and control tower functions. In his elevated role, he will hold enterprise-wide accountability for the end-to-end performance and efficiency of Delhivery's nationwide logistics network.

Prashant Gazipur has been appointed Chief Operating Officer - In-city Operations. Prashant has driven last-mile operations across Delhivery's urban delivery network and has been instrumental in scaling the company's last mile reach and capacity. He will now lead all city-level operations strategy including building out last-mile franchise pickup and drop operations.

Nikhil Ummat has been appointed Chief Operating Officer - Engineering and Automation. Nikhil has led Delhivery's automation initiatives and fulfillment centre operations, and has been at the forefront of the company's proprietary drone and robotics programme under Delhivery Robotics. As Chief of Engineering & Automation, he will drive the company's engineering and automation infrastructure strategy.

Sunny Raja has been appointed Chief Procurement Officer. Sunny has led Delhivery's commercials and procurement function, building scalable and cost-efficient supply-side capabilities. As Chief Procurement Officer, he will take on broader accountability for effective capex strategy, partner management, and commercial optimisation across the company.

Varun Bakshi has been appointed Chief Sales Officer. Varun has been instrumental in scaling Delhivery's Part Truckload (PTL) business and building long-term enterprise relationships with leading brands across categories. As Chief Sales Officer, he will lead the company's overall direct and cross-selling strategy across all business lines and customer segments.

Vikas Kapoor has been appointed Chief Strategy Officer. Vikas has led Delhivery's Full Truckload (FTL) business and brings a strong commercial and market understanding. In his new role, he will be responsible for shaping the company's long-term strategic priorities, identifying new growth opportunities, and driving cross-functional alignment.

"These elevations recognise the exceptional depth and quality of leadership we have built within Delhivery over many years. Arun, Prashant, Nikhil, Sunny, Varun, and Vikas have each demonstrated outstanding operational capability and business acumen in their respective domains. As we scale the organisation to serve a larger customer base, manage greater complexity, and pursue bold new opportunities in technology and commerce, it is both natural and important that our most seasoned professionals take on enterprise-wide mandates. I am proud of this team and look forward to what we will accomplish together in the years ahead."

— Sahil Barua, Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer, Delhivery
