ORDER

IA (IBC)/37/GB/2022

1. Mr. Akhilesh Lal, Advocate, appears along with Mr. Anupam Brahma, Advocate, on behalf of the Applicant.
2. Ms. Sudha Sarma, Liquidator, is present in person.
3. Ms. Rima Deb, Advocate (Proxy Counsel), appears on behalf of Mr. Samrat Saha Roy, Advocate, for the Respondents.
4. Learned proxy counsel further seeks time for arguments on the ground that learned counsel for the Respondents, Mr. Samrat Saha Roy, is unable to appear due to personal difficulty.
5. Considered. Upon perusal of the order sheets, it is observed that the Respondents have sought adjournments on several previous dates. Accordingly, in the interest of justice, one last opportunity is granted to the Respondents to advance their arguments, subject to payment of costs of Rs. 5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand Only) to the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund, with a direction to submit proof of such payment before the Registry prior to the next date of hearing.

6. List the matter on 27.07.2026 for hearing.

IA (IBC)/166/GB/2024

1. None appears on behalf of Mahindra and Mahindra Financial Services Limited.
2. Ms. Sudha Sarma, Liquidator, is present in person.
3. Learned Liquidator submits that the Applicant has not been appearing the matter for a considerable period and prays that IA (IBC)/166/GB/2024 be dismissed for non-prosecution.
4. Considered. Upon perusal of the order sheets, it is observed that on several previous dates, none has appeared on behalf of the Applicant.
5. It appears that the Applicant is no longer interested in conducting the matter. Accordingly, IA (IBC)/166/GB/2024 is hereby dismissed for non-prosecution.
