Ms. Indu Sharma, learned counsel for the respondent-contemnor. 3. Pursuant to the order passed by this Court dated 02.11.2026, contemnor-Mr. Praveen Tandon is present before this Court. He has come up with the keys of the locker, which were directed to be handed over to the officer nominated by the In-charge Managing Director within ten days from the date of passing of the order by the Writ Court, and an inventory of the articles was directed to be prepared in the presence of the petitioners. 4. But the keys were not handed over to the petitioners, which gave rise to the filing of the present contempt petition. 5. Mr. Pradeep Tandon, respondent-contemnor, has handed over the keys of the locker in the open Court to Mr. Shobhit Saharia, learned counsel for the petitioners-Power Transmission Corporation of Uttarakhand Limited, who, in the presence of the Court, has handed over the keys to Mr. Ashok Kumar Juyal, General Manager (HR) and General Manager

(Legal) of Power Transmission Corporation of Uttarakhand Limited.

6. It is informed by learned counsel for the petitioners that the locker will be opened on 23.11.2026 at 11:00 a.m.

7. The locker shall be opened by Mr. Ashok Kumar Juyal, General Manager (HR) and General Manager (Legal) of petitioner no.1 in the presence of respondent-contemnor-Mr. Praveen Tandon and an officer not below the rank of SDM, nominated by the District Magistrate, Dehradun.

8. Since the keys of the locker have been handed over by the respondent-contemnor, no further orders are required to be passed in the present contempt petition. Accordingly, the contempt petition is closed.

9. It is expected from the petitioner-Power Transmission Corporation of Uttarakhand Limited to abide by the order passed by the Division Bench of this Court dated 13.06.2024.

10. It is also made clear that the petitioners shall videograph the entire proceedings of opening the locker and preparing the inventory of the contents found in the locker.

11. Copy of this order be forwarded to the District Magistrate, Dehradun, today itself, by the Registrar General of this Court.
