On 26.05.2026, substantial submissions on behalf of the Petitioner were heard and the matter was adjourned for further submissions of both sides. On the subsequent date, the matter could not be taken up and was adjourned to today.

During the intervening period, additional submissions dated 01.06.2026 were filed by the Petitioner in person through e-mode and uploaded on 06.06.2026. It is, inter alia, stated that the Petitioner may be permitted to prosecute the matter in person and that the matter be considered on merits based on the pleadings already on record.

As the Petitioner is not present in person today, the Registry is directed to serve a copy of this order upon the Petitioner and inform to remain present, either physically or through virtual mode, on the next date of hearing for making oral submissions, if any.
