17. Supreme Court in Miheer H. Mafatial vs Mafatial Industries Ltd JT 1996 (8) 205 while considering the scope of the jurisdiction of the Company Court in respect of matters of Sanction of the Scheme of Amalgamation as per the provisions of Section 91 read with Section 393 of the Companies Act, 1956, observed as under:

“It is the commercial wisdom of the parties to the scheme who have taken an informed decision about the usefulness and propriety of the scheme by supporting it by the requisite majority vote that has to be kept in view by the Court. The Court certainly would not act as a court of appeal and sit in judgment over the informed view of the concerned parties to the compromise as the same would be in the realm of corporate and commercial wisdom of the concerned parties. The Court has neither the expertise nor the jurisdiction to delve deep into the commercial wisdom exercised by the creditors and members of the company who have ratified the Scheme by the requisite majority. Consequently the Company Court's jurisdiction to that extent is peripheral and supervisor and not appellate."

18. In view of the law laid down by the Supreme Court, this Tribunal is not supposed to examine the merits/benefits of the commercial wisdom of the decision of the shareholders etc.

21. Consequently, sanction is hereby granted to the Scheme under Section 230 to 232 of the Companies Act, 2013 with the following directions: -
 - (i) The Petitioners shall, however remain bound to comply with the statutory requirements in accordance with the law.
 - (ii) Notwithstanding the above, if there is any deficiency found or, violation committed, qua any enactment, statutory rule or regulation, the sanction granted by this court to the scheme will not come in the way of action being taken in accordance with the law, against the concerned persons, directors and officials of the petitioners.

from payment of stamp duty, taxes or any other charges if any, and payment in accordance with law or in respect to any permission/compliance with any other requirement which may be specifically required under any law.
