ORDER

Ld. Counsel for the Respondent submitted that he has filed affidavit stating the status of the matter before Hon'ble NCLAT in another order passed against the CD. However, it appears there is no stay in hearing this matter or the other matters listed today.

Ld. Counsel for the applicant submitted that they have filed their written submissions. Heard the Ld. Counsel for the applicant and respondent. It appears that Ld. Counsel for the Applicant has not complied with the last order and not served notice upon the GST as there were allegations between both the parties on certain fraudulent transactions under investigation by GST. He is directed to comply with the same and serve notice upon the GST official.

Heard the Ld. Counsel for both the parties. Both the parties are directed to file written submissions, if any, including pending litigations, not more than two-three pages before 10.30 AM on 10.06.2026.

The order is reserved.
