PRESS RELEASE

Subject: Press Release – Receipt of DPIIT Industrial License for Defence Manufacturing of Empty shell body. Sunita Tools Limited Secures Strategic DPIIT Industrial License under Indian Arms Act, 1959 for Empty Artillery Shell Manufacturing

Mumbai, 20th November 2026, Sunita Tools Limited has announced that the company has received a strategic Defence Industrial license under the Arms Act, 1959, From DPIIT for the manufacturing of all major sizes of empty artillery shells calibre's 81 mm to 155mm.

This milestone positions Sunita Tools as one of India's major defence manufacturing company within a select league of distinguished suppliers in the private sector apart from the DPSU's.

Backed by a initial production capability of 3,00,000 units annually—with plans already underway to scale up output at our factories by installing Line-2, Sunita Tools is on track to kick start manufacturing this November 2026 for the DPSU order and post that, soon, for the other orders in hand, including the NATO order when customer gets ready with their logistics. The order in hand is approx. 550 Cr in this division, apart from the various LOI and RFQ which can now be entertained as we have the license.

This strategic move underscores Sunita Tools' unwavering commitment to indigenisation and technological excellence in the defence sector, aligning seamlessly with the nation's 'Atmanirbhar Bharat' initiative.

Sunita Tools Limited maintains an absolute commitment to rigorous quality control protocols and operational safety standards. Our manufacturing processes will be strictly aligned with the exacting benchmarks of the defence sector, guaranteeing that our production output flawlessly matches the specialised operational mandates of the Indian Armed Forces as well as Iinternational defence parts standards like that of NATO, Elbit etc.
