Mr. Tumul K. Nainwal, learned AGA for the State.3. Applicant is seeking anticipatory bail in connection with First Information Report No.0700 of 2023 dated 14.12.2023, registered with Police Station Patel Nagar, District Dehradun under Sections 120-B, 409 & 420 IPC.4. The allegations in the First Information Report are that applicant, along with four friends, conspired to siphon off an amount of Rs.49,88,400/- from the recycler machine of the Bank of Baroda, Patel Nagar, P.S. Patel Nagar, District Dehradun, and they were caught doing so in CCTV footage, in which they were clearly identified.5. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that applicant is allegedly said to be a friend of the other co-accused persons and after investigation, offence under Section 409 IPC |

has been converted to Section 407 IPC in respect of the applicant, whereas the charge-sheet has been submitted against the other co-accused persons under Sections 409, 120-B and 420 IPC, while the investigation against the applicant is still pending.

6. Having considered the submissions made by learned counsel for the applicant and having gone through the record of the First Information Report, this Court is of the view that the offence alleged against the applicant is very serious in nature, as the applicant allegedly misappropriated a huge amount of money from the bank's recycler machine.

7. In view of the above, no case for anticipatory bail is made out. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is rejected.
