Nanta Tech Limited Inaugurates New Experience Centre in Mumbai

Mumbai facility brings the company's AV, Robotics, and AI solutions together for live demonstrations, strengthening customer engagement and regional business expansion.

Ahmedabad, 16th September 2026 - Nanta Tech Limited, an integrated technology solutions company engaged in service robotics, Audio-Visual (AV) integration, software and AI solutions, today announced the inauguration of its new Experience Centre at 502, Metro Avenue, Andheri East, Mumbai – 400099. The facility marks an important step in the Company's efforts to expand its presence across India's western business corridor and provide partners, clients, and channel associates with direct access to its technology portfolio.

The Mumbai Experience Centre is designed to offer an immersive, hands-on experience of Nanta Tech's integrated technology solutions. Visitors can explore live demonstrations across the Company's core business verticals, including Audio-Visual (AV) Solutions, Robotics under the Allbotix brand, and Artificial Intelligence. The AI portfolio features products such as MeetIQ, NTalk, Ntra, and VisitIQ, enabling customers and partners to understand the practical applications of the Company's solutions across diverse business environments.

With the new facility, Nanta Tech aims to strengthen its engagement with enterprise and government customers, support partner interactions, and create opportunities for business development in the Mumbai region. The center will serve as a regional hub for product demonstrations, client meetings, and technology showcases, enabling visitors to experience the Company's solutions firsthand and explore their potential to enhance operational efficiency and customer experience. The Company remains committed to expanding its presence in key markets and delivering innovative technology solutions that create long-term value for its customers and partners.

Commenting on this, Mr. Mayank Jani, Managing Director of Nanta Tech Ltd, said "Mumbai is one of the most important markets for us, and the inauguration of our new Experience Centre is a significant milestone in bringing our AV, robotics, and AI capabilities closer to our partners and customers in the region. The center provides a platform for visitors to experience our solutions firsthand, understand their applications, and explore opportunities for collaboration. We look forward to strengthening our presence in Mumbai and creating greater value for our customers and channel partners."
