

NATIONAL COMPANY LAW APPELLATE TRIBUNAL
PRINCIPAL BENCH, NEW DELHI

Company Appeal (AT) (Insolvency) No. 603 of 2026

IN THE MATTER OF:

Canara Bank

...Appellant

Versus

Narinder Kaur & Ors.

...Respondents

Present:

For Appellant : Present but appearance not marked.

For Respondents : Mr. Nip;un Gautam, Advocate.

O R D E R
(Hybrid Mode)

17.07.2026: We have perused the order dated 25.05.2026 as under:

“25.05.2026 Learned counsel for the Appellant submitted that the order which was reserved on 30.01.2026 has not yet been delivered. We on 09.04.2026 has passed following order:*

“O R D E R
(Hybrid Mode)

09.04.2026 Ld. Counsel for Respondent submitted that Adjudicating Authority has already reserved the order in IA(I.B.C)/ 119(CH)2026 as well as in CP (IB) 11/CHD/PB/ 2026.*

Order having been reserved, we are of the view that this Appeal need to be taken after the orders are delivered and placed before this tribunal.

List this Appeal on 11/05/2026.”

2. It shall be open for the parties to request the Adjudicating Authority. No direction can be issued in this regard.

3. List this appeal on 17.07.2026.”

2. Learned counsel for the respondent has also shown us the order dated 01.07.2026, wherein application for early pronouncement of the reserved orders in I.A. (I.B.C)/ 119 (CH) 2026 was filed seeking early pronouncement but was disposed of saying the order was already been drafted and would be pronounced at the earliest.

3. Considering the submissions made and on perusal of the order dated 25.05.2026, let this appeal now be listed on 25th August, 2026.

[Justice Yogesh Khanna]
Officiating Chairperson

[Barun Mitra]
Member (Technical)

himanshu/md