Press Release

Rajesh Power secures landmark ₹1,629 Crores Mega Order from DGVCL; Order book soars to ₹5,400 crores.
Back-to-back mega order wins from Gujarat's power utilities; Order book expands by ~35%, creating strong multi-year execution visibility.

Ahmedabad, November 5, 2026: Rajesh Power Services Limited (RAJESH) BSE: 544291, ISIN: INE0VN801010 has secured a landmark turnkey order worth ₹1,628.74 crore (inclusive of taxes) from Dakshin Gujarat Vij Company Limited (DGVCL), significantly strengthening its growth trajectory.

With this mega order, the Company's aggregate order book has surged to approximately ₹5,400 crore, representing an impressive ~35% expansion from 4,000 crore prior to this order.

Under the 24-month turnkey project, Rajesh Power will convert existing 11/22kV HT & LT overhead electricity distribution networks into modern underground cable systems with SCADA-compatible equipment across multiple locations under DGVCL's SI Scheme.

The latest order comes on the back of strong business performance, with the Company reporting 46% year-on-year revenue growth in H1 FY27, accompanied by healthy profitability and improving cash generation.

With a substantially enlarged order book, back-to-back mega order wins and strong sectoral opportunities in power distribution modernisation, Rajesh Power is entering an important phase of business expansion.
