Press Release

Midwest Energy Limited, Midwest Limited, Non-Ferrous Materials Technology Development Centre (NFTDC) and PT Perusahaan Mineral Nasional (Persero) Sign Memorandum of Understanding to collaborate on developing Critical Minerals and Rare Earth Resources in Indonesia

Midwest Energy Limited is pleased to announce that it has, together with Midwest Limited and the Non-Ferrous Materials Technology Development Centre ("NFTDC"), signed a Memorandum of Understanding ("MoU") with PT Perusahaan Mineral Nasional (Persero) ("PERMINAS"), Indonesia's state-owned strategic minerals enterprise.

This MoU establishes a framework for the parties to evaluate potential collaboration across the rare earth value chain in Indonesia, including upstream exploration and resource assessment, mining, processing, extraction, refining and downstream manufacturing in general and Rare earth magnet production in particular. This further opens up further opportunities in related areas.

This milestone reinforces Midwest Energy Limited's ongoing strategy to build a meaningful presence across the rare earth value chain, complementing its existing initiatives in the sector. It marks its first structured collaboration with a Southeast Asian state-owned strategic minerals enterprise.

Under the terms of this MoU, the parties shall establish a joint working group to plan and monitor the project implementation.

Scope of Each Party

Under the MoU, Midwest Energy Limited, Midwest Limited, and NFTDC will collaborate as a consortium, contributing complementary areas of expertise: Midwest Energy Limited will provide technology and operational expertise in establishing Rare earth Magnet manufacturing plant. While Midwest Limited will contribute expertise in exploration, mine planning, environmental studies, mining and mineral processing operations, and the extraction and separation of rare earth elements, NFTDC will provide technology, technical expertise and services across the value chain.

PERMINAS will provide access to critical minerals and rare earth resources for Joint Development in Indonesia.

About Midwest Energy Limited

Midwest Energy Limited is an India-based enterprise, engaged in rare earth permanent magnet production activities.

About Midwest Limited

Midwest Limited, is an India-based enterprise engaged in mining, minerals processing, and related industrial activities, with a growing presence across the rare earth and critical minerals value chain.
