PRESS RELEASE

Pricol and Warburg Pincus Jointly Announce Agreement for Promoter Stake Sale in Pricol Autotech Limited

- Pricol announced the proposed demerger of its Driver Information and Connected Vehicle Solutions (DICVS) business into Pricol Autotech Limited through a scheme of arrangement on 27th June 2026.
- Warburg Pincus to acquire the Pricol promoter group's entire 38.51% stake in Pricol Autotech Limited, following the proposed demerger and listing of Pricol Autotech Limited.
- Warburg Pincus to launch a mandatory open offer to Pricol Autotech Limited's public shareholders following completion of the demerger and listing on NSE and BSE, in accordance with applicable SEBI regulations.
- This transaction will build on Pricol's strong legacy and accelerate Pricol Autotech Limited's next phase of growth, expanding its capabilities in instrument clusters, connected vehicle and e-cockpit solutions, with the ambition to build a broader automotive electronics business.
- Following the proposed demerger, the Actuation, Control and Fluid Management Systems (ACFMS) business will continue to operate under Pricol Limited, while the Polymer business will continue to operate through Pricol's wholly owned subsidiary Pricol Precision Products Private Limited. Both businesses will remain under the ownership and management of the current promoter group, the Mohan family, with no change in their shareholding.

Coimbatore / Mumbai, India, 13 November 2026 — Pricol Limited ("Pricol"), a leading Indian automotive technology and precision components company, and Warburg Pincus, the pioneer of global growth investing, today jointly announced that Warburg Pincus has entered into definitive agreements with Pricol's promoters to acquire their entire 38.51% shareholding in Pricol Autotech Limited ("Pricol Autotech" or the "Company") following the proposed demerger of Pricol's Driver Information & Connected Vehicle Solutions ("DICVS") business into Pricol Autotech. The proposed acquisition is subject to the demerger becoming effective and requisite regulatory and other approvals.

The proposed transaction represents an important next chapter for a business built by Pricol's promoters and management over five decades. With a strong foundation in product innovation, engineering capabilities and trusted relationships with leading vehicle manufacturers, Pricol Autotech is expected to benefit from Warburg Pincus long-term investment approach, deep sector expertise and global network as it explores opportunities in Indian and international markets.

Pricol Autotech will house the DICVS business, one of India's leading providers of driver information systems and automotive electronics, including instrument clusters, telematics, sensors and e-cockpit solutions. It serves original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) across two-wheelers, three-wheelers, four-wheelers, commercial vehicles and off-highway segments.

The DICVS business reported approximately INR 2,400 crore in revenue in FY26, representing around 60% of Pricol's consolidated revenue.

Vikram Mohan, Chairman and Managing Director of Pricol Limited, said, "Over five decades, Pricol has grown from a small Coimbatore factory into a trusted technology partner to vehicle manufacturers, with our driver information and connected vehicle business at the heart of that journey. The proposed demerger will give Pricol Autotech the focus and independence to realise its full potential. We believe Warburg Pincus, with its long and storied history both in India and globally, extensive resources, global connections and deep automotive sector expertise, is the right custodian to take the business forward into the next phase of its growth story. We are proud of what our people have built and confident that we are placing Pricol Autotech in capable hands for its next chapter of growth. We will continue to focus on growing the businesses of Pricol Limited to achieve greater success."

Anish Saraf, Managing Director at Warburg Pincus, said, "We are grateful to Vikram Mohan and the Pricol promoters for the trust they have placed in us. They and the management team have built an exceptional business with deep OEM relationships, strong engineering and product development capabilities, and a respected position in India's automotive industry. We recognise the responsibility that comes with building on this legacy. We look forward to partnering with Pricol Autotech's management and employees to support the Company's long-term ambitions and expand its presence in India and internationally."

Swapnil Sinha, Managing Director at Warburg Pincus, said, "The automotive components sector has for long been an area of focus for Warburg Pincus in India. We see compelling opportunities in automotive electronics as vehicle technology becomes increasingly sophisticated. Our aim is to support Pricol Autotech's evolution into a leading automotive electronics platform through investment in technology and talent, expansion of capabilities and customer relationships, and disciplined strategic acquisitions. We are excited to work with the management team as it builds on the strong foundation established by Pricol."

Transaction overview

On 27 June 2026, Pricol's Board of Directors approved a Scheme of Arrangement for the demerger of its DICVS business into Pricol Autotech. Under the Scheme, eligible Pricol shareholders are expected to receive one equity share of Pricol Autotech for each equity share held in Pricol Limited, and Pricol Autotech is proposed to be listed on the National Stock Exchange of India (NSE) and BSE Limited (BSE). Following the demerger, Pricol Limited will continue to operate its Actuation, Control & Fluid Management Systems and Precision Products businesses.

Following the Scheme becoming effective, Warburg Pincus will make a mandatory open offer to public shareholders and complete the acquisition of promoter's stake to become Pricol Autotech's largest shareholder. Per applicable SEBI regulations, the open offer will be to acquire up to an additional 26% of the Company's share capital. The Scheme and proposed transaction remain subject to applicable approvals and conditions, including, as relevant, approvals from shareholders, creditors, stock exchanges, SEBI, the National Company Law Tribunal and the Competition Commission of India.

Advisors

For the promoters: Veda Corporate Advisors acted as exclusive financial advisors, Khaitan & Co and Ramani & Shankar Advocates acted as legal advisors.
