

THE NATIONAL COMPANY LAW APPELLATE TRIBUNAL
PRINCIPAL BENCH, NEW DELHI

Interlocutory Application No.7207/2026
Un-numbered Company Appeal (AT) (Ins.) No. ____/2026
(F.No.14.08.2026/NCLAT/UR/08343)

In the matter of:

Authum Investment & Infrastructure Ltd. Appellant

Vs.

Ramanathan Bhuvaneshwari Resolution
Professional of R.P. Infosystems Ltd. & Ors. Respondents

Appearance: Shivam Shorewala, Advocate for the Appellant.

7th October, 2026
(Hybrid Mode)

This is an application to extend the time granted for curing the defects.

The facts giving rise to present IA (re-filing) are that the Appellant e-filed the Memo of Appeal on 28.07.2026. The Office after scrutiny of the Memo of Appeal on 14.08.2026, intimated the defects to the Appellant on the same day. The Appellant re-filed the Appeal on 30.09.2026. It is stated in the IA that owing to the voluminous nature of the Appeal, the process of collating, bookmarking, indexing, detailed restructuring, re-pagination, recompilation of records and crossreferencing of the numerous annexures running into several volumes, curing the defects took considerable time. The registered office of the Appellant company is situated in Mumbai, whereas the loan account in question is based in Kolkata, and the captioned Appeal was required to be filed before this Hon'ble Appellate Tribunal at Delhi. Owing to the geographical distance between these locations, coordination and handover of the clear and legible copies and other documents amongst the various offices caused delay of 32 days, which was neither deliberate nor intentional, so the same may be condoned.

Heard Ld. Counsel appearing for the Appellant and perused the averments made in the IA as well as Office report.

The Appellant was required to re-file the Memo of Appeal within seven days from the date of intimation of the defects. However, the Appellant re-filed the Memo of Appeal with a delay of 40 days, hence, the case be placed before the Hon'ble Bench with defect for appropriate orders.

List the case before the Hon'ble Bench under the heading 'for admission with defect (fresh case)'.
