02.09.2026 Shri Zain Khan, inform that he is appearing on behalf of Shri. Sanjeev Mahajan, who has raised the complaint against the Appellant and has also filed a caveat under Section 148A of CPC read with office order dated 09.04.2019 and the same has also been registered, however, the copy of the Memo of Appeal has not yet been provided to him.

We notice that the Registry has placed this appeal before this Bench with the remark 'No Caveat', which reflects that, perhaps, no caveat has been filed with regard to this appeal or pertaining to the parties arrayed herein.

Thus, the Registry is directed to place a report on the following points;

I Whether any caveat has been filed by anyone with regard to the matter impugned herein?

II If the same has been filed at what number it has been registered?

The report as desired must also reflect as to why no report has been placed with regard to filing of caveat and why the same is not reflecting on the e-portal of this Appellate Tribunal, in connection with this appeal.

The aforesaid report, be submitted by tomorrow morning.

Shri Deepak Khosla, Learned Counsel appearing for the Applicant in I.A. No. 6230 of 2026, submits that his I.A. may also be disposed of today itself and Applicant be impleaded as a Respondent in the appeal.

We notice that still no opportunity has yet been given to the parties, to file their objections vis-à-vis the application moved by the Shri Deepak Khosla on behalf of Haravtar Singh Arora. Thus the parties may also file their replies with regard to I.A. No. 6230 of 2026, till tomorrow.

List this appeal on 03.09.2026, as the second case on the board.
