Allcargo Terminals Reports 17.4% Q-o-Q Revenue Growth in Q2FY27; Net Profit Rises 228%

Mumbai, 4th November 2026: Allcargo Terminals Limited announced its financial results for the quarter ended September 30th, 2026, reporting a net profit of ₹21 crores, a 228% quarter-on-quarter increase compared to ₹6 crores in the corresponding quarter this year. The strong profit growth underscores the company's operating leverage and improved efficiency across its operations.

During the July - September quarter, revenue increased by 21.5% year-on-year to ₹252 crore, driven by higher volumes across Allcargo Terminals' pan-India container freight station (CFS) and inland container depot (ICD) network. EBITDA grew by 45.9% year-on-year and 24% quarter-on-quarter to ₹59 crores, reflecting continued focus on cost discipline, process optimization, and better asset utilization.

Summary of Consolidated Financial Results.

(₹ in Cr)

Pranav Choudhary, Managing Director, Allcargo Terminals Limited, said"We are pleased with our performance in Q2FY27. During the July–September quarter, revenue grew 17.4% quarter-on-quarter to ₹252 crore, while EBITDA increased 24% quarter-on-quarter to ₹59 crore and net profit rose to ₹21 crore. This growth reflects the continued progress of our business, supported by focused yield management, increased transhipment activity and the strength of our operational network. Our focus remains on driving operational efficiencies, optimising business opportunities across our CFS and ICD network, and strengthening our capabilities to support India's evolving EXIM trade requirements.
