PICCADILY

— SINCE : 1967 —

Q1 FY27 Performance Highlights

- Branded Alcobev Business Revenue grew 47.3% YoY, reflecting strong market demand and increasing consumer acceptance across key markets.
- The Branded Alcobev Business contributed 43.5% of Distillery revenue, compared with 37.8% in Q1 FY26, demonstrating the continued improvement in the Company's revenue mix.
- Revenue of the company increased 18.1% YoY.
- Distillery revenue grew 26.3% YoY to INR 206 crore.
- EBITDA increased 21% to INR 47 crore, supported by revenue growth and a higher contribution from the Branded Alcobev Business.
- Net Profit increased to INR 22 crore in Q1 FY27 from INR 19 crore in Q1 FY26, representing a growth of 15.4% YoY.

The strong growth in Branded Alcobev Business revenues underscores the success of Piccadily Agro's strategy of building a premium, consumer-led portfolio while enhancing the contribution of value-added products to its overall business.

Commenting on the performance, Mr. Natwar Agarwal, Chief Financial Officer, Piccadily Agro Industries Limited, said, "We have commenced FY27 on a strong note, with our Branded Alcobev Business delivering revenue growth of 47.3% YoY. Its contribution to Distillery revenue has increased to 43.5%, reaffirming the strength of our premiumisation strategy and the sustained demand for our brands across markets.
The 26.3% growth in Distillery revenue, alongside a 21% increase in EBITDA, demonstrates the resilience of our business model and the effectiveness of our execution. We remain focused on expanding our consumer franchise, strengthening distribution and building a portfolio of brands with enduring value. We expect to deliver 60–70% growth for the full year, with H2 being the main driver and contributing approximately 60–65% of our annual revenue.
The commencement of sales from our Chhattisgarh operations in June 2026 represents an important milestone in the continued expansion of our geographic footprint. We expect these operations to scale progressively over the next three quarters, strengthening our presence across Central and Eastern India while also enabling us to serve select markets in Southern India. As we expand, we remain focused on disciplined and profitable growth, while continuing to strengthen product quality, brand equity, and the long-term sustainability of the business."

Early demand trends in Chhattisgarh have been encouraging, highlighting the market's potential and supporting the Company's expansion strategy.

Piccadily Agro remains focused on accelerating the growth of its Branded Alcobev Business, expanding its presence across strategic markets and improving the share of premium and value-added products in its revenue mix.

The Company will continue to pursue growth through disciplined market expansion, brand-building investments, operational efficiencies and prudent capital allocation.
