Press Release

Machtravel.com and Mach Travel App Open for Public Beta Testing

New Delhi, India, August 31, 2026: Mach Travel Solutions Limited (formerly known as Mach Conferences and Events Limited) (BSE: MACHLTD), a publicly listed technology-enabled travel solutions company, today announced that its B2C Online Travel Agency (OTA) platform, Machtravel.com, along with the Mach Travel mobile application, is now open for public beta testing.

During the public beta phase, users can access and explore multiple travel services on Machtravel.com, including Flights, Hotels, Holidays, MICE, Cruises and Visa services. The platform brings these offerings together under a single digital ecosystem, with a focus on technology, ease of use and competitive pricing.

The public beta marks an important milestone in the development of the Company's B2C travel platform and allows users to experience the platform ahead of its full commercial launch.

The Company invites its shareholders, customers, travel partners and the wider public to explore the website and mobile application, test the booking experience and share their feedback. Inputs received during the beta phase will help the Company further refine the platform, enhance functionality and improve the overall user experience.

As the platform is currently in its beta phase, users may experience slower responsiveness, and certain features and functionalities may continue to be added, modified or optimized. The Company intends to progressively enhance the platform based on real-world usage and feedback received during the testing period.

Commenting on the commencement of public beta testing, Mr. Amit Bhatia, Chairman & Managing Director, Mach Travel Solutions Limited, said:

"Opening Machtravel.com and the Mach Travel App for public beta testing is an important milestone in our B2C journey. Our ambition goes far beyond building another online travel booking platform. Our mission is to revolutionise the way travel is searched, planned and booked by combining technology, a seamless user experience and competitive pricing on a single platform.

This is only the beginning. The platform is currently in beta, and we want our users to be an active part of its evolution. We invite our shareholders, customers, partners and the wider public to test the platform extensively and tell us what works, what does not and what they would like us to build next. Our objective is to continuously improve the platform through technology and customer feedback and build a travel experience that delivers both convenience and value."

The public beta represents another step in Mach Travel Solutions' transformation and its strategy to build a comprehensive travel ecosystem across both its existing businesses and emerging digital B2C offering.
