Segment Bifurcation (in Lacs)

The Company's performance reflects contributions from its diversified business verticals, with City Gas Distribution (CGD) continuing to be the major revenue contributor, supported by General Construction Services and Power Distribution.

During H1 FY 2026-27, the segment-wise revenue contribution was as follows:

(₹ In Lacs)

Particulars	CGD	General Construction Service	Power Distribution	CBG	Total
Revenue	4,967.67	2,147.38	389.88	-	7,504.94
PBT	1015.22	352.63	48.72	-5.09	1,638.12

The CGD segment contributed approximately 66.19% of the Company's total revenue, while General Construction Services contributed approximately 28.61%, demonstrating the Company's established presence in infrastructure execution and energy-related projects.

Management Commentary

Building Scale. Strengthening Fundamentals. Creating Long-Term Value

Desco Infratech Limited is pleased to share its financial and operational performance for the half year ended 30 September, 2026.

H1 FY27 reflects continued business expansion, with strong year-on-year growth in revenue and profitability. The Company remains focused on strengthening its core EPC capabilities, expanding into complementary infrastructure sectors and building a sustainable, diversified business platform.

Revenue grew approximately 78.52%, and net profit increased approximately 53.97% year-on-year. The growth reflects an expanding execution base and increasing business opportunities across the Company’s operating segments.

With increasing execution volumes, the Company has witnessed higher receivables and working capital requirements. The timing difference between project execution, milestone-based billing, client certification and collections has impacted the working capital cycle. Management recognises that cash flow conversion is an important area requiring improvement. Focused efforts are underway to accelerate pending billings, strengthen collection mechanisms and improve project-level working capital discipline. Improving cash conversion alongside business growth remains a key management priority.

Growth Strategy & FY27 Outlook

The Company remains focused on its previously communicated FY27 revenue ambition of approximately ₹195 crore. Given the execution-led nature of the EPC business, a significant portion of project execution and revenue generation generally takes place during the second half of the financial year.

With an executable order book, expanding geographical presence and opportunities across complementary infrastructure sectors, the Company remains focused on converting business visibility into sustainable financial performance.

Management Perspective

"H1 FY27 demonstrates the progress Desco Infratech Limited is making in scaling its operations and strengthening its market presence. While we are encouraged by the growth in revenue and profitability, we remain equally conscious of the importance of cash flow generation, working capital efficiency and consistent execution.

Our vision is to build Desco into a diversified and financially disciplined infrastructure organisation. We believe long-term shareholder value is created not merely through growth in numbers, but through the quality, sustainability and consistency of that growth."

Outlook

Going forward, the Company remain focused on expanding our presence across the CGD, infrastructure, power distribution and emerging energy segments, while creating long-term value for our stakeholders.
