06.11.2026: We have heard learned counsel for the Appellant as well as learned counsel for the CCI.

2. Various submissions have been raised by learned counsel for the Appellant including that wrong section has been taken into consideration by the CCI for the purpose of imposing penalty and there was no evidence of formation of any cartel.

3. It is further submitted that there was no formation of cartel with regard to two tenders of 77 Lakhs and 31 Lakhs in which Appellant has participated and was not successful. So that he has not got any profit out of it and the observation of CCI of existence of cartel is not correct.

4. Learned counsel for the CCI submits that she may kindly be given an opportunity to bring on record her objections with regard to the appeal as well as the stay application.

5. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, we are of the considered view that an opportunity to file reply pertaining to the appeal as well as with regard to the stay application should be provided to the CCI before passing any order even with regard to the stay application of the Appellant.

6. In this view of the matter, let this appeal be listed on 23.11.2026 under the same caption, by which date the CCI may filed its reply with regard to the appeal as well as pertaining to the stay application.

7. It is provided that if reply with regard to the stay application is not filed by the CCI, on the next date of listing, the stay application would be heard and would be taken to its logical end even in absence of reply of CCI.
